

Quintrex F390 Explorer - Pack 1 HULL ONLY

$3,750

Description

Quintrex F390 Explorer Hull only package

The Quintrex F390 Explorer Hull, a beacon of design and functionality in the world of watercraft. As the largest in the Explorer range, this model stands out with its impressive dimensions, measuring 3.99 meters in length and 1.82 meters in beam. This expansive design doesn't just offer more space; it opens a realm of possibilities for customization, allowing you to tailor your boat to your exact needs and preferences. The hull's construction is a testament to Quintrex's commitment to quality, featuring 1.6mm top and bottom sides, and a sturdy 1.6mm transom material. These specifications not only ensure durability and longevity but also provide a solid foundation for any additional customizations.

The F390 Explorer Hull is more than just a vessel; it's a dynamic platform for adventure. Boasting 100mm higher topsides compared to its counterparts, it offers an enhanced deadrise that makes slicing through the water effortlessly and efficiently. This design element not only improves the boat's hydrodynamics but also significantly enhances comfort during navigation. Whether cutting through calm lakes or navigating choppy waters, the hull remains stable and responsive, ensuring a smooth and enjoyable ride. Furthermore, its compatibility with up to 25hp motors allows for a harmonious balance of power and control, ensuring that every journey is as exhilarating as it is safe.

In terms of features, the F390 Explorer Hull is second to none. Its spacious interior not only accommodates a greater number of people but also provides ample room for gear, fishing equipment, and personal belongings. The inclusion of practical elements like a glove box and anchor gusset adds to its functionality, making it not just a boat but a well-thought-out tool for exploration and enjoyment. Safety is paramount, as evidenced by the solid corners and robust bow and side rails, offering added security for all on board. The versatile bench seating can be arranged to suit various activities, whether you're angling, sightseeing, or simply basking in the beauty of the open waters. Dubbed the "mother of all tinnies," the Quintrex F390 Explorer Hull is a true masterpiece that promises to elevate your boating experience to new heights.
